

please be advised that satellite radio has as much right under the first amendment as traditional, commercial radio. It is an absolute infringement of their rights for commercial radio to attempt to limit the broadcasting rights of satellite radio, simply because they are unable, or unwilling to compete for listeners in the marketplace. We support the satellite radio providers and ask you to recognize their constitutional right to compete with commercial radio.